FAQ

• When attempting to adjust the gamma setting on Some video cards clicking „apply” will cause the gamma to reset. If you are experiencing this issue, adjust gamma on its own and click the back button. The gamma setting should now be changed properly.

• There are a number of known issues with Windows XP64: end of the installation process. Close the crash dialogue

1. When installing the game, the installer may crash near the window, and you should be able to launch the game by double clicking the game icon on the desktop or by selecting it in the start menu (Start > Program Files > City Interactive > Battlestrike: Secret Weapons).

2. You may experience graphical issues with explosions in game. These should be corrected when official 64 bit drivers are released for your video card. Keep checking back with your video card manufacturer for official drivers. You should also check <http://www.microsoft.com/directx/> for DirectX updates specific to Windows XP64.

3. Because the installer crashed, you will not be able to uninstall the game via the usual methods. To uninstall the game manually, please follow these steps:

- Double click MY COMPUTER.
- Select TOOLS and click FOLDER OPTIONS.
- click on the VIEW tab.
- In the ADVANCED SETTINGS, there is a section called HIDDEN FILES AND FOLDERS. Select the SHOW HIDDEN FILES AND FOLDERS option.
- click on APPLY and then OK.
- Navigate to the following folder:

C:\Documents and Settings\PROFILE NAME\Application Data\City Interactive\ (Where PROFILE NAME is the name of your Windows profile)

- Right click the FOLDER called BERLIN and Select DELETE.

- Navigate to the following folder:

C:\Program Files (x86)\City Interactive\

- Right click the FOLDER called BERLIN and Select DELETE.

- Navigate to the following folder:

C:\Documents and Settings\All Users\Start Menu\Programs\City Interactive\

- Right click the FOLDER called Battleground: Secret Weapons and select DELETE.
